Property Description

This well presented mews style end of terraced house boasts two double bedrooms (master with en-suite shower room), as well as a spacious lounge which overlooks the south facing rear garden. There is also a modern kitchen, family bathroom, and useful downstairs cloakroom. To the front there is parking for three cars, and the aforementioned rear garden is lovely - ideal for relaxing or entertaining. It is well secluded, and being slightly wider than average, has a further terraced and storage area to the side. Located on this highly regarded development on the favoured south side of town, a selection of very good schools are all within easy reach of this property, including Warren Road, Newstead Wood, and St Olaves. Orpington mainline railway station with it's fast and frequent service to London is close by, as is Orpington High Street with an array of shops, cafes, and restaurants, as well as the Odeon cinema complex. Bus routes, motorway links, and lovely Greenbelt countryside are also all near by. Offered chain-free, and internal viewing is highly recommended in order to appreciate all that this lovely home has to offer.
