Offering buyers four excellent size bedrooms, two bathrooms (including a master en-suite) and offered to the market with excellent presentation, is this attractive semi detached family home. The property is located on Crescent Drive, a highly sought after tree lined side road set in the heart of Petts Wood. This location is paramount and provides an outstanding balance of schools catchments, most notably Crofton (Ofsted outstanding), amenities, local shops, cafes and restaurants of Queensway and Station Square and of course Petts Wood station with fast and frequent routes serving Central London. The property is set over three levels, with plenty of accommodation for families. The ground floor features a bright lounge to the front and a open plan modern kitchen diner to the rear. The first floor incorporates three wonderful size bedrooms (with bedroom four an impressive 10'11 x 8'2 and a contemporary family bathroom. The extension into the loft provides a master suite with a dressing area, ample built-in storage and an en-suite shower room. Further features include a well maintained garden which extends to over 100', off road parking, a utility room off of the kitchen and a conservatory. To the rear of the garden viewers will find a garage which measures 20'8 x 16'4 and can be accessed via the residents-only service road. Interest in Crescent Drive properties is always high, so arrange your viewing now.
